

Job Title	Asset Apprentice
Reports to	Asset Officer
Department	Asset Management
Purpose & Overview	WWU are seeking to employ a post-secondary education student to join their Asset Apprenticeship Scheme, working in the Asset Integrity and / or Process Safety and Assurance team. Throughout the 3-year apprenticeship you will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Achieve relevant qualifications applicable to Asset / Process Safety Management. • Develop a wide range of skills and competencies by exploring the way our company is run. • Receive on-the-job training and mentoring. • Earn a competitive salary The Asset Apprentice role is an exciting opportunity for acquiring skills in asset / process safety management activities associated with the transportation of gas in our distribution system, supporting compliance with both statutory and non-statutory regulations and delivery of the WWU Business Plan and Safety Case. The role is an exciting opportunity for an individual to help shape the future of our industry, as well as playing a part in the de-carbonisation journey towards a more sustainable future. The successful candidate will be enrolled into an apprenticeship qualification (HNC Engineering or equivalent) with full sponsorship from WWU. Off the job training release will be granted as required by the education provider. It is expected that WWU Asset Apprentices will work towards Professional Qualifications and become a professional developed engineer (Incorporated Engineer status). WWU Training during the apprenticeship will include: SAP, Microsoft (Word, Excel, PowerPoint) and other APP based products.
Key Accountabilities	Within the role, you will work closely with colleagues within Asset Integrity / Process Safety Management and some internal and external stakeholders. You will learn how to assist and contribute towards the management of gas distribution assets in accordance with the WWU Management System and Safety Case, including the: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Delivery of the continual improvement in management of gas distribution assets to deliver a safe, reliable gas network at the least whole life cost.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support of the delivery of the annual maintenance plan and associated delivery programmes. • Financial planning and reporting to internal and external stakeholders. • Work on the development of policy and procedures to maintain continued compliance with legislation through regulatory change. • Supporting the maintenance of asset records and improvement of the same through robust management of systems and processes, including audit. • Assistance of the departmental requirements leading up to and during Audits and Interventions. • Support of work completed in accordance with appropriate Codes of Practice, Wales & West procedures and Legislative requirements. • Building effective working relationships through collaborative practices. • Assisting in the collection, collation and compiling of process safety measures to monitor the effectiveness of systems and processes to manage the asset safely
Qualifications	A capable and motivated individual who has an interest in mechanical/gas/electrical/instrumentation engineering, that, as a guide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Preferably holds an A Level profile that includes a strong performance in a relevant subject, or a BTEC Level 3 qualification in Engineering. • Supported by a minimum of 5 GCSEs (or relevant equivalent) with Maths, Science and English desirable. • Takes pride in work and is motivated to deliver high performance ensuring safe working practices. Is a strong team player with excellent listening, communication, influencing and collaboration skills.