

Job Title	Net Zero Project Manager – Industrial Clusters
Department	Net Zero & Sustainability
Reports to	Net Zero Portfolio Manager – Industrial Clusters
Grade	Grade 5
Purpose & Overview	To support in the delivery of the Net Zero strategy within WWU. The role will progress and lead emerging industrial decarbonisation projects, providing support to the Net Zero Portfolio Manager and in turn the Hydrogen Transformation Manager. This will require project development from conceptual stages through to delivery, building on existing work. It will also require attendance at external forums, close liaison with multiple stakeholders, the production of timely updates, internal and external communication, and project management/support of technical aspects of various projects.
Key Accountabilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Developing and submitting applications to funding streams from Department for Energy Security and Net Zero (DESNZ) and Welsh Government. • Managing and delivering gas transportation and storage work packages within projects and various areas of the Net Zero Innovation Portfolio. • Engage and manage key partners within existing industrial clusters such as Hydrogen South West to deliver WWU's strategic aims. • Attend workshops and represent WWU in external forums and with key organisations such as DESNZ and the Health and Safety Executive (HSE). • Support the Net Zero Portfolio Manager – Industrial Clusters to influence and progress the development of hydrogen infrastructure for WWU's industrial customers across Wales and the South West of England. • Identify future opportunities and project development with funding streams such as the Network Innovation Allowance (NIA) and Strategic Innovation Fund (SIF). • Reporting of project progress and dissemination of key findings both internally and externally • Develop & deliver internal interfaces with virtual teams across WWU. • Consider intellectual property opportunities.
Technical Know-How & Skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Project Management experience essential • Technical & engineering focus essential

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Ability to support analysis and planning processes• Experience of liaising with multiple stakeholders and representing an organisation externally• Takes pride in their work and be motivated to deliver high performance• A strong team player with excellent listening, communication, and presentation skills• Experience of working with government departments desirable• Energy transportation experience desirable
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Full clean UK driving licence desirable• APM or PRINCE2 desirable